PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Performance-focused Frontend Engineer with a strong Full-Stack foundation and 1.5+ years of experience engineering production React, Next.js, and TypeScript web applications. Proven track record of optimizing Core Web Vitals and delivering scalable platforms for international agencies and clients. Expert in translating complex Figma UI/UX mockups into production-ready, highly accessible (WCAG 2.1) client code. Open to remote work worldwide.

EXPERIENCE

Front-End Developer | Freelance

Remote | Aug 2025 – Present

- Engineering high-performance production web applications for global clients using React, Next.js, and TypeScript.
- Optimized website asset delivery and Core Web Vitals for an international client, delivering fast, accessible, and responsive layouts.
- Rated 5 stars by freelance clients for robust code quality, clear architectural practices, and transparent communication.

Frontend Internship | Kalbonayan Almosros

Egypt | Nov 2022 – Aug 2023

- Built 10+ responsive web pages with HTML5/CSS3/JavaScript, using A/B testing frameworks to increase user engagement by 25%.
- Integrated fluid responsive design principles, including media queries and Flexbox, across 4 web applications, leading to a 35% increase in mobile traffic and a 20% reduction in bounce rates.
- Collaborated closely with cross-functional design teams via Figma to isolate and resolve 10+ critical cross-browser compatibility bugs during QA phases.
- Compressed static assets and implemented dynamic lazy loading for non-critical resources, reducing overall page load time by 30% and improving Largest Contentful Paint (LCP) by 0.5s.
